

I have been traveling a lot lately. My recent family tragedy took me away from the parish for some days in June. In July the Pastoral Council sent me on a week long Pastor's Workshop and then sent me to a spiritual Retreat with our seminarians. The weeks were wonderful, refreshing, and helpful but I will let you read into what they were gently saying to their pastor (hee, hee, just kidding). My latest adventure will be this week when a group of my close friends from seminary, including an auxiliary bishop from Philadelphia, will get together for our annual three day Tennis Extravaganza. The only other travel engagements in the future will be our bi-annual Priest Convocation for a week in September. I hope everybody's summer has been going well and your trips were holy, fun and refreshing. Our attendance at Mass has been quite good for the summer months. Maybe that means there have been a lot of families taking my very favorite type of vacations: a staycation.

I wanted to let you know about what is happening to the Brown House on the corner of our property. There is an outside chance that as I am writing this on Monday it will no longer be there as you arrive this weekend. The final task we had to do was cap the gas line, now we are waiting for the destruction permit. With the permit it will be down and gone in about a week. Most everything that can move has been taken from inside and a group specializing in re-use of material deemed what is left as not valuable for them. I want to thank our awesome History Committee for the fantastic job they have done in making sure we document and preserve the memory of the Brown House for years to come.

At the beginning of September our Campaign Committee and I want to give the parish another big update on everything surrounding the New Evangelization Center. It is going to be a huge historical moment for our parish. I can't wait to say goodbye to the crippling conflicts of space we continue to run into. However, I am starting to get a clearer vision as to what and how the new building will enable us to further develop as a parish dedicated to being "Disciples in Action" and sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. As always if you have any questions about what we are trying to do or how it is going please don't hesitate to contact me. God Bless!

Your Servant for Life
Fr. Matt
